

Lea Community Primary School

MFL Curriculum Map

Academic Year 2024-2025

	Unit 1	Unit 2	Unit 3	Unit 4 (optional)
Year 3	French Greetings. National curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	French Adjectives of colour, size and shape. National curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	French Transport National curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	In a French classroom National curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.

Year 4	Portraits National Curriculum objectives. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language.	French numbers, calendars and Birthdays National Curriculum objectives. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language.	French weather and the water cycle (links to Science States of Matter Spring 2) National Curriculum objectives. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language.	French Food (links to Science Nutrition Summer 1) National Curriculum objectives. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language.
---------------	---	---	---	---

Year 5	French Monster pets National Curriculum Objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Space exploration (links to Science Forces and Space: Earth and Space) National Curriculum Objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Meet my family (links to Science Animals: Human Timeline) National Curriculum Objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	French Speaking World National Curriculum Objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.
----------------------	---	---	--	---

Year 6	French Sport at the Olympics National Curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	In my French House National Curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Planning a French holiday National Curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.	Visiting a town in France. National Curriculum objectives Appreciate stories, songs, poems and rhymes in the language. Broaden their vocabulary and develop their ability to understand new words that are introduced into familiar written material, including through using a dictionary. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Write phrases from memory, and adapt these to create new sentences, to express ideas clearly. Understand basic grammar appropriate to the language being studied, including (where relevant): feminine, masculine and neuter forms and the conjugation of high frequency verbs; key features and patterns of the language; how to apply these, for instance, to build sentences; and how these differ from or are similar to English.
---------------	--	--	---	--