

Right to Withdraw from Religious Education

At Lea Community Primary School, our Religious Education (RE) curriculum is inclusive and explores a variety of religious and non-religious worldviews, helping children to develop their understanding of different beliefs, perspectives and ways of life.

Parents have the right to request that their child is withdrawn from RE lessons. If you wish to exercise this right, please contact the headteacher in writing to arrange a meeting to discuss your request.

School will ensure that any withdrawal is handled appropriately and in accordance with its statutory responsibilities and local arrangements for RE. Parents are encouraged to speak with us before making a decision, so that you can understand the purpose and content of RE and discuss any questions or concerns you may have.
